

This Old Heart

This old heart is breaking
 It's coming apart
This old heart is breaking
 It's coming apart
 It's tearing apart
(this old) Heart is aching
 It was wounded deeply

So please tell me you've changed your mind
Thought it over and see you were blind
Yes please tell me that you've changed your mind
You've thought it over and want to be mine

This old heart
 This old heart
 This old heart

This old heart can't take it
 It's sunk in despair
 It's too much to bear
(this old) Heart is broken
 It stopped and won't start
 You've damaged this heart

Lead
Middle
 We were two lovers
 Who are now alone
 What once worked so well
 has become our farewell
 And neither of us ever saw it coming

 I can't believe as such
 We've lost so much
 But if there's a chance
 Can we try one last dance?
 Maybe the second time will be a charm

So please tell me you've changed your mind
Thought it over and see you were blind
Yes tell me that you've changed your mind
You've thought it over and want to be mine

This old heart
 This old heart
 This old heart

This old heart
 This old heart
 This old heart

This old heart would be joyful
 If said you've changed
 That we're not estranged

This old heart would go crazy
 If I see you unpack
 If you came back

We were two lovers
 Who are now alone
 has become our farewell

I can't believe as such
 We've lost so much
 Can we try one last dance?
Maybe the second time will be a charm

Maybe the second time will be a charm
