

ROCK AND ROLL COWBELL

Its sound is lean and mean
Its tones are crisp and clean
The sound is a rocker's dream
No, it ain't no tambourine

Its sound is lean and mean
Its tones are crisp and clean
The sound is a rocker's dream
But it ain't no tambourine

You can hear the pulse pick up
And the dancers strut their stuff
You can never get enough
When the cowbell's hanging tough

It's a rock and roll cowbell
Setting pace for the band
It has a solid soulful knell
And it casts a powerful spell
Well I am proud to say
Yes I am proud to say
I play lead cowbell in the band

When the music calls for soul
When there's a giant sonic hole
The cowbell fills the role
With its loud and mournful toll

And now you hear the pulse pick up
And the dancers strut their stuff

When the cowbell's hanging tough
